DAILY RECORD-UNION

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER.

MONDAY..... OCTOBER 18, 1886.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

EASTERN.—The Chicago strike remains about the same. The Pinkerton force has been increased to 450 men. At Indiana avenue Harry Doherty has been shot and killed himself....Steps are being taken by the Government for the extinction of English sparrows and other bird pests....Yellow fever is reported to exist at Mississippi City....A man has been shot and killed while trying to break his furniture....Most of the town of Salisbury, Md., was burned last night....A schooner and crew were lost in Lake Erie Saturday night....Ex-champion Mike McCooe is dead.

FOREIGN.—The Bahama Islands' mail has been wrecked among the Bahama Islands....Many lives and vessels were lost on the English coast during the late storm.

PACIFIC COAST.—The body of Cummings, recently drowned at C. C. B., has been recovered....The storm which commenced Saturday evening continued yesterday, many points....Earthquake shocks felt in a number of places....A woman is suspected of having set the fires that nearly burned Stockton, Utah.

A BOLD CONSPIRACY TO EFFECT VICTORY ENDS.

Behind all human action there is motive. It must be good or ill; it must direct to ends fit to be conserved or worthy of condemnation. Honesty of purpose, pure and conscious truth never resort to means such as are now employed by the San Francisco Chronicle to compass the defeat of the Republican ticket, which bears a direct relation to Republican ascendancy in the Senate of the United States.

The Chronicle supports the head of the Republican State ticket. It could scarce do otherwise. Between the two candidates the comparison is so great that there is no room for doubt for any intelligence that dispassionately examines. But the journal referred to supports the general ticket because it has ulterior purposes to accomplish that it could not effect were it a pronounced opponent.

We have watched the strange and erratic course of that paper for some time, giving to it all the charity of possible doubt to honesty of motive. But there no longer remains any question concerning its ulterior purpose. Its management is very far from being amenable to the charge of lack of average intelligence. Having a purpose to accomplish at sword's points with the best interests of this State, and intimately related to the pocket nerve of that paper, it masquerades in the garb of the Republican ticket simply and solely to accomplish vicious ends. It is needless to remind Californians of their profound concern in the maintenance of the Hawaiian treaty. The public is intelligent upon that subject. The Chronicle has for years been operating in pursuance of an illicit compact with commercial forces at the East whose personal interest is bitterly opposed to the continuance of the treaty, in order that this people may be placed at the mercy of the control of sugar dealers of the Atlantic.

This is history too familiar to call for any renewed recital of the proofs. To accomplish the abrogation of the treaty is the one open purpose of that paper, and to that end it sacrifices all other interests. It opposes all who stand in its path to this goal, and so little cares for the Republican ticket it assumes to advocate, that it will sacrifice it from head to foot in order to put into the United States Senate a man in accord with its vicious scheme—a less person than that notorious enemy of the Sacramento valley and of the dairy interests of the country, George Hearst.

That journal having personally addressed Congressional and Senatorial candidates upon this subject, will prove loyal only to those whom it can influence against the treaty. This fact is known. George Hearst is a Democrat; the Chronicle, masquerading behind the Republican ticket, is laboring to secure that Democrat's return to the Senate. This it cannot do openly, for obvious reasons. It believes a concealed fight, and one within the lines, to be the best. It can compass Hearst's election only by traitorously breaking down and corrupting the Republican legislative ticket. This, then, is its present and vicious aim.

We have no candidate for Senator; the personality of no aspirant has any concern for us, whatever save that we are solicitous that a Republican shall be chosen, competent, of high character and broadly advised of the best interests of this coast. We are certain that a Democratic Legislature means the return of George Hearst, as that the globe wheels in its orbit. Assuming seriously in its assaults upon one citizen whose aspirations are said to point to a Senatorial seat, the Chronicle forgets that the people remember that it has long had a bitter, personal, unrelenting quarrel with that gentleman. It forgets that the people remember Mr. Sargent to have been the author of the Hawaiian treaty, and therefore not susceptible to the scheme of its abrogation—in the interest of which the Chronicle is retained—not, indeed, is any one else thus susceptible who is not willing to play into the hands of Eastern sugar manipulators.

It does not matter that the great commercial interests of San Francisco, voiced through the medium of the chief commercial body of that metropolis, has memorialized the Federal Government to maintain the integrity of the treaty; the Chronicle has a contract to deliver goods, and this it can only accomplish by the election of a Senator of one plastic in its hands to this end. It therefore is doing its "level best" to cover its advance by a beating of tom-toms about the candidacy of one man, a Republican, in order to effect the election of Hearst, the Democrat. It has recently declared the election of a Senator not of vital importance. It proposes, as it has said of late, "let the future take care of itself" if only it can bottle the Republican legislature in this manner.

Why should any Republican be led on by the going beating of Friday? At this of all other times, why? The State and county ticket are good, representative and worthy of support. Who upon them is not competent, honest and patriotic? Every vote cast by a Republican for the new side-show means so much of gain for the opposition. What does the triumph of the party is due to just such gentlemen as those of the independent movement, who toast their toes at home in the hour of party. Had they been as prompt in duty as doing as the country has a right to demand of them, and we have urged them to, they would have not even the shadow of apparent cause for complaint. It is all folly to say that needed reform cannot be accomplished within party lines. Whoever asserts it, stigmatizes the manhood of the nation and libels civilization.

It does not matter that the great commercial interests of San Francisco, voiced through the medium of the chief commercial body of that metropolis, has memorialized the Federal Government to maintain the integrity of the treaty; the Chronicle has a contract to deliver goods, and this it can only accomplish by the election of a Senator of one plastic in its hands to this end. It therefore is doing its "level best" to cover its advance by a beating of tom-toms about the candidacy of one man, a Republican, in order to effect the election of Hearst, the Democrat. It has recently declared the election of a Senator not of vital importance. It proposes, as it has said of late, "let the future take care of itself" if only it can bottle the Republican legislature in this manner.

What that future will be, in its judgment, may be inferred from the private expression of the proprietor of that journal that the Legislature will be Democratic, and that it will elect a Senator friendly to the abrogation of the treaty—this was but the vocal materialization of the unexpressed desire of the Chronicle.

We have not the assurance to declare that the Chronicle may, in promoting its personal quarrel, be ignorant of the effect of its work—so it will be to all effective. The Chronicle is engineered by intelligence, and by unconscionable management that is at least not amenable to the charge of ignorance. It not only knows what it is doing, but its acts and advocacy are the result of matured plans, and the hope to accomplish vicious ends.

It remains for Republicans to be on their guard against the leading the Chronicle undertakes. For weeks the RECORD-UNION has evolved.

REPUBLICAN RALLY.

Seven Ringing Speeches and Unbounded Enthusiasm.

The Republican rally Saturday night at the Wigwam was a fine one. A grand torchlight procession had been arranged, but the inclemency of the weather prevented the carrying out of that part of the programme. It did not, however, one whit dampen the enthusiasm of the Republicans who filled the seats of the vast auditorium, while many stood in the lobby. There were present a goodly number of ladies. Mr. E. Platt, of the Congressional Building, organized the speakers named for Chairman Joseph Steffens and the following Vice-Presidents: Hon. A. C. Freeman, Captain Wm. M. Sidbons, W. R. Strong, Rev. Carroll M. Davis, W. T. Huntington, Frank O'Brien, Franklin Miller, D. L. Linnley, John Flint, H. Petit, M. K. Barrett, Nate Webb, Charles Schmidt, Samuel Gersot Hon. Charles T.
